

End User Review Assignment2 – Team 1

Unfortunately, we were unable to fully test the application as the EC2 instance was not up. I appreciate that the team informed us of this issue and offered to connect at a convenient time.

However, despite emailing on Wednesday night to set up a suitable time for the end user review the next day, I did not receive a response. As a result, I was unable to provide feedback on the application's functionality and user experience.